REMEMBERING 2003

First I'd like to thank all the members for giving me the opportunity to serve as your 2003 Commodore. I'd also like to thank all the Board members, volunteers, and especially Pat Megaw for all the help throughout the year. 2003 was not the smoothest year for the FHSC. We all made it through it and I hope the club is stronger because of it. Change is not a four letter word, it is a necessary thing for any organization to continually try to improve in order to attract new members and keep the old ones interested. Your new Commodore, Pat Megaw, is extremely qualified to do a great job. I hope every club member will give her their support. Remember the FHSC cannot function without volunteers.

To every FHSC Member that has previously volunteered to help the club in any capacity, regardless of however large or small, THANK YOU !! You have each one set a perfect example for us to follow, for without you there would be no club. One of the goals for this year is to improve participation, as there are many activities for members to enjoy. With any organization we "reap what we sow" therefore the more we become involved the richer our experience. I look forward this year to enjoying our club events with the friendly, fun & energetic members of FHSC.

 Pat Megaw

EASTER SUNDAY

June 19/04
Got T Run toughs out poor conditions to win
Jack and Jill sailing race

SAILING

Lloyd Bacon and his "Jill," Juliet Flint, on Got T Run won the 2005 Jack and Jill Race June 18, defending his title in very frustrating conditions for the whole six-boat fleet.

After very light winds in the 11 a.m. GPS-timed self-start, no one had rounded Reid Rock in the first two hours in drifting conditions. Several got very close only to be swept short up San Juan Channel in the strong flood currents. Several boats did 360s in the current and some had to start engines to avoid the rocks.

Finally, Chamade (Parking Lot Central), which hadn't moved 100 yards in two hours and was actually giving up and slowly sailing back to the harbor, got a slight S.E. breeze and rounded Reid Rock about 1 p.m.

By that time, only Got T Run was still in position to also round so it was a two-boat race for a beautiful sail up the channel for a clockwise rounding of Jones.

Chamade finished at 4:12 and Got T Run at 4:46, just 13 minutes before the 5:00 PM deadline.

Ilse Grigoleit had organized a great barbecue on the float at Shipyard Cove and we sat on Pintail's deck chairs and had a lovely "chinwag" (Australian for gabfest).

Here is a calculation of the two die-hard finishers.

First place: Got T Run, 20789 seconds elapse X .7841(T/T) factor equals 16,300 seconds corrected.

Second place: Chamade, 18766 seconds elapse X .9489(T/T) factor equals 17,807 seconds corrected.

Did not finish: Levi, Vandal, Salida, Haley.

Light winds don't dull Shaw Classic good time

The crew of the Kiana casts off from the Port of Friday Harbor in preparation for the Shaw Island Classic.

The Washington State Ferry Illahee and the schooner Martha cross paths as 78 boats out in San Juan Channel start the Shaw Island Classic race.

The winds were so light for this year's Shaw Island Classic that several boats had to be towed back to port on glassy seas.

About 40 of the 78 boats that participated in the 31st Annual Classic finished the race before the time limit of 6 p.m. According to Ron Collins, "the energy crisis hit the fleet of the 31st Annual Shaw Island Classic with ferocious intensity Saturday, as the 78 registered boat fleet searched mostly in vain for enough wind force to propel them around Shaw Island."

Collins said that when the winds died, the current took over, and many boats spent much of the day sailing backwards.

But, everyone had a good time despite the light winds. The Dan Bentzen trophy was awarded to the boat with the shortest elapsed time, the Phoenix, skippered by James Miller. Hobie Gillis, skippered by Jim Johansen, had the second best elapsed time.

Other results:

• PHRF "A" (Diamond Head Trophy): First, Karina, Jorgen Byse; second, Showtime, Bill Glass; third, Icarus, Arne Bentzen.

• PHRF "B" (Bicentennial Trophy): First, Grafix, Tom Gilbert; second, Hobie Gillis, Jim Johansen; third, Mudlark, Lynn Adkins.

• PHRF "C" (San Juan Inn Trophy): First, Sooner or Later, Greg Krabbe; second, Fiddler's Green, Hector Cyre.

• PHRF "D" (Sea Fever Trophy): First, Nemo-sis, Chris White; second, Red Tide, Wally Lum.

• Cruising "A" (Alcor Trophy): First, Interface, Gil Lund; second, Phoenix, James Miller; third, Delicate Balance, George Hiss.

• Cruising "B" (Sail-In Laundromat Trophy): First, Pro Tanto, Bill Strange. Pro Tanto also had the best corrected time.

• Cruising "C" (Penial Trophy): No finishers.

• Centerboard (Horton Trophy): No finishers.

• Multihull (Multihulls Trophy): No finishers.

Hein Bank Race Friday Harbor Sailing Club

Clear skies and blustery conditions greeted sailboat racers for this year's running of the annual Hein Bank Sailboat Race.

The race committee took the option of shortening the course to Salmon Bank buoy instead of Hein Bank because of the brisk winds and flood tide causing lumpy seas. Most racers appreciated this decision.

The top finishers were:

PHRF Division

First: "Ginny," Capt. Charles Mottl, Orcas Island Yacht Club.

Second: "Delicate Balance," Capt. George Hiss, Orcas Island Yacht Club.

Third: "Maluna," Capt. Charles

Zalmanek, F.H. Sailing Club.

Cruising Division

First: "Mariana," Capt. Fred

Hoepfner, F.H. Sailing Club.

Second: "Tango," Capt. Mike

Close, F.H. Sailing Club.

Lloyd Bacon wins Aug 25/04 Sailing Club race

Nine sailors materialized through the fog Saturday to compete in the Friday Harbor Sailing Club's annual single-handed race on Griffin Bay.

Despite light air and drenching rain, it was one of the largest turn-outs for a single-handed race in the club's 25-year history.

Fred Perez on Vandal, a Santa Cruz 33, ghosted over the starting line first in both races. He nearly disappeared into the fog on the second race as he approached the windward mark. Wes George's sleek Aphrodite 101 "Chamade" sailed first over the finish line in both races.

Lloyd Bacon's Cal 20 "Got T' Run" took first on corrected time. "Chamade" tied for second with Bill Van Skyhawk's C and C 25, "Scarlet de Haro." Barbara Marrett on the Sailing Foundation's Cal 20 "Levi" took third.

"We all arrived back at the dock with clean, salt-free sails," Bacon said.

Marrett noted that in more than 50,000 miles of ocean sailing, this was the wettest she had ever been.

Other participants in the eclectic fleet: Fred Hoepfner on "Mariana," a CT-41; Michael Chadwick on "Bilbo Baggins," a Catalina 36; Ramsey Milne on "Zulu 3," a Signet 20; Les Arnott on "Optimystics," a Hunter 37.
